A WEEKLY JOURNAL

BLOOMFIELD PUBLISHING CO.,
at Bloomfield, Essex County, N. J.J. MILTON UNANGST, Publisher.
Office: 314 Glenwood AvenueSubscription, $2.00 per year, in advance.
Six months, $1.00; Three months, 50c.

Entered at the Post-office at Bloomfield as second-class matter.

THE CITIZEN solicits contributions from the general public on any subject—political, religious, educational, or social—so long as they do not contain any personal attacks.

All communications must be accompanied by the writer's name, not necessarily for publication, but as an evidence of good faith. Advertisements for insertion in the current week must be in hand not later than Friday noon.

SATURDAY, JULY 16, 1892.

The fire alarm on Tuesday night brought out crowds of people, who thronged the streets and good-naturedly jostled against each other, all asking the same question, "Where's the fire?" The fire, fortunately, did very little harm, and we again had an exhibition of the readiness of the Fire Department in responding to calls.

The weather this week has been oppressive, and those who are enjoying sea or mountain breezes should not fail to have their enjoyment enhanced by the knowledge of what they have escaped in the way of exhausting and trying heat.

Jay Gould was once in the early summer asked by a lady friend who had some money to invest what kind of stock she should purchase. "Buy thermometers," said the shrewd Jay, "for they are sure to rise."

The great strike at Homestead has absorbed public attention and been thoroughly and ably discussed by the press. There has not been, as far as THE CITIZEN has seen, any reference to the significance of the name Homestead. The word is one full of meaning, and in this case peculiarly. The Carnegie Company, whatever criticism may be passed upon their method of protecting their works, have the same right to protect these works as any workman in their employ has to protect his own little homestead. The works are the company's homestead. It is a poor rule that does not work both ways. Property of whatsoever kind and to whomsoever it may belong must be protected at any and every cost.

The death of Cyrus W. Field under such sad circumstances has called forth widespread expressions of sympathy. His name will be forever linked with the cable as that of Morse is with the telegraph.

The perennial circus has been in town and gathered beneath the folds of an air-excluding tent the usual crowd. From the time of the Caesars to the present day the circus has held its own and bids fair to continue to do so in the future, though Barnum and Forepaugh are both no more.

Building and Loan Association.

Vice-Chancellor Bird has filed an opinion in the case of Amet vs. the Union Building and Loan Association, which defines the rights of a subscriber to the association when their money is withheld.

Amer holds ten shares of the stock in the Union Building and Loan Association of New Brunswick. When he joined, it was with the understanding that in consideration of the payment of one dollar per share each week he was to receive $200 when the association closed and each share was worth that sum.

Those who had become borrowers were to have their obligations cancelled, while the others were to receive $200 in cash. In September, 1881, the association was declared closed. Amer as the owner of ten shares wants $2,000 with interest from 1881. Others have been paid, and many loans have been cancelled, but the association refuses to settle with him. The bill which was filed sets forth that the association is insolvent, and prays for a discovery and the appointment of a receiver.

Vice-Chancellor Bird declared: "It would be monstrous injustice to deny the complainant relief. The managers of this institution have so conducted its affairs that those who took loans promptly received all the benefits designed by the formation of the association; while those who simply invested their cash have been obliged to wait ten years with the prospect of receiving at least less than the principal originally invested."

Want $9,000. Additional.

The annual school meeting for receiving the report of the Board of Trustees will be held Tuesday evening, July 26, in the High-school. In addition to the regular appropriation the Trustees will recommend the issuing of bonds to the amount of $9,000 for the purpose of enlarging the Liberty Street primary school.

The Montclair Tariff Reform Club has issued a circular letter congratulating the voters of New Jersey on the nomination of Grover Cleveland.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

The Y. M. C. A. Lecture Course.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE CITIZEN:
SIR: Some time ago it was stated in the columns of THE CITIZEN that the last lecture in the Bloomfield Y. M. C. A. course would be delivered in June, and subsequently its "indefinite" postponement was announced. The natural inference to be drawn from this is that although the subscribers paid their money for six entertainments, because of some trouble to them—unknown, they are to be "put off" with five. Now among business men a transaction of this sort would hardly be called straight. If we are to be denied the pleasure of hearing Prof. Gates's lecture upon "Sidney Lanier," as was promised when the tickets were sold, and which formed an inducement for some to subscribe to the cause, the Association should substitute some other attraction for it. A theatre manager similarly situated would do as much, and surely the Y. M. C. A. ought to act as honorably with its patrons as an often-deepened theatrical manager. As there is plenty of excellent talent among us from which to get up an attractive entertainment at any time, we suggest that the Y. M. C. A. fulfill its pledge to its subscribers, and saves its reputation by making an effort to secure some of this talent to take the place of the gifted lecturer we expected to greet last April.

July 12.

"A Dose of Salts Needed."

TO THE EDITOR OF THE CITIZEN:
SIR: For the edification of your correspondent, "Old Flag," I will state that on Sunday last I was entertaining a friend who is a "dyed-in-the-wool" Republican. He is a fellow-townsmen and draws his political pap from the New York Tribune. I am fond of poking him with a Democratic stick now and then, so while smoking after dinner I asked him if he had seen "Old Flag's" article. His reply being no, I read the communication and asked him if he did not think such a man needed medical attention. He replied "Yes, and a dose of salts should be the first prescription."

BLOOMFIELD, July 12

Glen Ridge Notes.

Miss M. C. Gallagher of Glen Ridge is at Socorro, New Mexico.

Charles E. Bartholomew has purchased a building lot on Hillside Avenue, Glen Ridge.

Mrs. D. V. Freeman and family of Lincoln Street leave to-day for an outing in the Catskills.

Miss Hattie A. Russell of Philadelphia, delegate to the Christian Endeavor Convention, spent the past week with friends in town.

Miss Katie Higgins of Hillside Avenue has gone to College Point, on the Long Island Sound, to spend the remainder of the summer.

Charles B. Darling of Lawrence, Mass., graduate of Harvard College and delegate to the Christian Endeavor Society Convention, spent the week with Nathan Russell's family in Glen Ridge.

Gentlemen residing in Glen Ridge who are in love with base-ball, and feel themselves physically able to play a game, are respectfully invited to meet at the residence of Mr. Geo. Pañcoast, on Linden Avenue, this (Saturday) afternoon at four o'clock. Game will be called on adjacent grounds at half-past four sharp. Those who are temporarily residing with us are specially invited to participate. It is hoped that those who took part two years ago will again put in an appearance, and it is expected that a good, sociable time will be enjoyed. Let us have a good turn up.

The club races of the Orange Wheelman will take place on the Harrison-Center Street course at three o'clock this afternoon. The event to be run as follows: One-mile novice, one-mile championship, three and five-mile handicaps. The novice race is open to any member who has never won a prize. There will be three prizes in each of the handicap events.

A child in the family of John Stager, who lives corner of Orange and Peloubet Streets, died from malignant scarlet fever last Sunday. Another child in the same family is down with the same disease. The family are very poor, and are being helped by the members of the Watessing M. E. Church.

A horse that ran away from some place in Orange Tuesday night went through Watessing to Bloomfield Avenue, thence to Montclair and across to West Orange, where it was captured. Many people narrowly escaped being knocked down by the runaway.

A cow purchased on Wednesday by John Noll, the dairyman, got away from the boys who were delivering it from the dealer and has not been heard of since.

Complaint is made that the Italians employed along the Orange sewer strip the gooseberry bushes in the gardens along the route of the sewer.

A floral arch at the Centre will form a part of the decoration when the Knights of Pythias come to town.

Watessing people complain that they have been discriminated against in the distribution of mail boxes.

A board of trade is being organized in Orange to encourage manufacturers in that town.

Base-ball Notes.

Well! Well! Well!
B-I-O-M-F-I-E-L-D!

Now we've got 'em rattled!

Base-ball vocabulary was exhausted by the 400 cranks who assembled on the Watessing grounds last Saturday afternoon to see the first of three games between the Watessing Stars and the Bloomfield Base-Ball Club for the championship. The forces of the cranks were pretty evenly divided. The Bloomfield contingent arranged itself on the west side of the field and the Watessing on the east side. The game was exciting throughout, and the enthusiasm of the cranks was at times aroused to the highest pitch. The glory of the Watessing Star was dimmed. The Bloomfield's outplayed them at every point. The battery work of Vought and Decker of the Bloomfields was the principal feature of the game. Perry and Martin also put up a great game on the bases. For the Stars the work of Conroy, Thornall and Ferguson was noticeable, the latter making some brilliant catches in left field. In the fifth inning the Stars' pitcher, Gebhardt, gave way to Hayhurst, but the change did no good as the game was lost. The following is the full score:

Ferguson, 2b.	4	0	1	2	0	0	0	0
Flannagan, 3b.	0	0	2	0	0	0	0	0
Decker, c.	4	1	0	2	2	1	0	0
Gebhardt, p.	4	1	0	1	2	1	0	0
J. Ferguson, 1f.	4	0	0	3	0	0	0	0

On Saturday morning last, owing to the unpleasant weather, there was but little prospect of a game in the afternoon, but about noon time a few glimpses of the sun were obtained, and by three o'clock all indications pointed to a fine afternoon. As the Roseville Ironsides were to meet the Montclair team on the Valley Road grounds the friends of the home team gathered in force to encourage their friends to victory, and a victory it was.

The Ironsides put up a pretty good game, but they were outplayed by the Montclairs and had to succumb by a score of 9 to 2. We were pleased to note the presence in right field of Hasty of last year's Aeneas team, and it is to be hoped that either he or Needham of the same team, who was also present during Saturday's game, will continue to play with the Montclair team in place of Carman.

Flynn, who covered left field in Saturday's game, has proved another strong acquisition for the Montclair team, especially at the bat. The prettiest double play ever seen on the Athletic grounds was made in the fifth inning by Flynn and Schalk.

Following is the score by innings: Montclair A. C. 2 0 0 3 4 0 0 0 x-9 Roseville Ironsides 1 1 0 0 0 0 0 0-2

The Junior team of the M. A. C. went to Englewood last Saturday afternoon and defeated the strong team of the Englewood Field Club Reserves. Although the fielding of the Juniors was excellent their victory was due in a great measure to Cadmus's fine pitching.

Montclair A. C. 5 0 0 2 0 0 0 1 0-9 Englewood F. C. 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 1 0-3

This afternoon these same two teams will meet on the Valley Road grounds, Montclair, and it is to be hoped that they may receive a hearty welcome, as the Junior team is composed of purely local players and all young men of prominent families of Montclair. This is the first Saturday that they have had an opportunity to play on the home grounds since the opening of the base-ball season, and as they play a remarkably good game we presume they will have a large attendance.

The Corinthian Athletic Club base-ball team of Staten Island will play the Bloomfield Club on the grounds at Glen Ridge to-day.

The Franklin ball club will play the Caldwell team at Caldwell to-day.

Ice Water Without Ice.

Here is a wrinkle given by the Ladies Pictorial how to get ice water in places where there is no ice: Wrap a jug—a porous jug—one of those common earthenware things—in flannel—wet flannel—wrap it all around, leaving no place exposed to the air; place it, filled with water—or with claret cup, which some sinners prefer to water—in an open window exposed to all the air there is. Keep the flannel wet; in an hour the contents of that jug will be almost as cool as if they had been iced. This is a tropical trick which tricks the tropics.

The road machine has been used on the dirt roads in Glen Ridge during the week.

The glass of the gas lamps in this town is not kept properly cleaned.

No other Sarsaparilla possesses the Combination, Proportion, and Process which make Hood's Sarsaparilla peculiar to itself.—Advt.

"Seeing is Believing."

And a good lamp must be simple; when it is not simple it is not good. Simple, Beautiful, Good—these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will impress the truth more forcibly. All metal, tough and seamless, and made in three pieces only, it is absolutely safe and unbreakable. Like Aladdin's of old, it is indeed a "wonderful lamp," for its marvelous light is purer and brighter than gas light, softer than electric light and more cheerful than either.

Look for this stamp—THE ROCHESTER. If the lamp dealer hasn't the genuine Rochester, and the style you want, send to us for our new illustrated catalogue and we will send you a lamp safely by express—your choice of over 2,000 varieties from the Largest Lamp Store in the World.
